HAWA's mission is to advocate for social justice within the Hmong/Southeast Asian community through collective action. We envision a world where all of our Southeast Asian families in Milwaukee can live in a community that is free from violence. We are proud to be a Southeast Asian women led grassroots social justice organization in Milwaukee.

JOB ANNOUNCEMENT // PART-TIME HOPE ADVOCATE – 20 HOURS/WK

POSITION SUMMARY

The HOPE Advocate will be responsible for providing advocacy and support services for Southeast Asian folks with disabilities who have been impacted by domestic or sexual violence. These vulnerable population we know are seven to eight times more likely to experience violence compared to folks without disability. We are committed to providing outreach, education, and advocacy to our community in order to protect those most vulnerable.

START DATE FOR POSITION: FEBRUARY 19, 2018

SOME RESPONSIBILITIES INCLUDE:

- Community outreach and education on how to support folks with disabilities
- Provide ongoing advocacy support services for folks with disabilities

QUALIFICATIONS INCLUDE:

- Demonstrated history of working with folks with disabilities (i.e., visually impaired folks, hard of hearing folks, folks with intellectual disabilities, etc.)
- Some understanding of social justice, movement building, and gender-based violence
- Flexible schedule; some weekends and evenings.
- Be proficient in English and at least one other Southeast Asian Language (i.e., Thai, Hmong, Lao, Karen, Vietnamese, Burmese, etc.,)

HAWA is an equal opportunity employer. We strongly encourage folks directly impacted by violence as it relates to folks with disabilities to apply.
